Code of Conduct

As we strive daily to lead the nation in caring, healing, teaching, and discovering, The University of Kansas Health System is here to support your physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual needs. We know health challenges can cause worry, stress or fear for our patients and visitors. Our team is here for you.

We are also committed to the safety and comfort of our patients, visitors, and staff.

We expect patients, visitors, and staff to treat each other with respect.

We have a zero-tolerance policy for aggressive, abusive, or offensive behavior.

We will not permit these behaviors:

- Verbal, written or physical harassment and threats
- Racial, religious, cultural, or sexual insults, jokes or remarks
- Physical assault or inappropriate touching of others or oneself
- Threatening, insulting, aggressive, offensive, or intimidating gestures or actions
- Throwing items
- Stalking, including unwanted attention or gestures
- Property damage
- Possession of weapons or firearms

If we observe or experience any of these behaviors, our staff will determine how best to immediately respond. Concerns about staff or organizational safety may be reported to the police. We also have the right to end the provider/patient relationship and dismiss a patient from care and stop treatment permanently if these behaviors are not immediately stopped as necessary. We reserve all rights up to and including removal from campus and/or prosecution.
